1,000 / 40 for 40: Day ONE

There is no way to thank you all enough for praying for us for these first 40 days of being in Romania. We know that the Lord loves to have His people pray for one another, and we're so grateful for your willingness to intercede for us. Our goal is to lay down a foundation of prayer for our time in Romania, where we are constantly looking to the Lord for guidance, truly recognizing the spiritual warfare facing us, and lean into the Body of Christ.

Prayer Requests

Here are our quick, specific prayer requests for July 29, 2017.

- Derek hurt his back at the airport lifting luggage and is still in quite a bit of pain. Please pray for healing.
- Pray for the kids to become adjusted quickly and feel at home here.
- Tomorrow is our first day to go to our new church! Please pray that the Lord would open others' hearts to accept us into their community and prepare our hearts for worship!

Who We Met

Our first day in Romania was a bit of a whirlwind. After an extremely hectic, nail-biting time just getting into Romania and almost missing our flight, we spent about four hours driving to our final destination of Codlea, the little suburb of Brasov. By the time we pulled into Codlea, we were all exhausted, but our day wasn't over. I spent the next hour or so tagging along with our Team Leader, Derek Ebbers, as he secured our residence with a local realtor so we'd have a place to stay that evening. It was here that I met Nicu and Nicoleta, our landlords.

Nicu and Nicoleta seem like extremely generous people. They have us a great price on their property and have put great faith in us to take good care of their home. This house has been vacant for quite some time as they're very particular about trusting their tenants to keep the house in great condition. They obviously haven't met Elin and Atticus, and our pallet with our couch covers from the States can't get here quickly enough! 😊 There are so many breakable things at toddler level, so we've been scurrying around to kid-proof the house! But it's a gorgeous house and they've thoughtfully gone to great lengths to make it spotless for our arrival. They presented it to us with joy.

While I couldn't speak much with Nicu and Nicoleta, I enjoyed our time together. But the best news is that we will get to see them at least once per month as they come to the house to pick up our rent payments on the first Wednesday of each month. There is nothing better than guaranteed face time. As you pray for us and Romania, please keep Nicu and Nicoleta in your prayers, especially on the first Wednesday of each month. Pray that God will provide us with wisdom as to how we can pour into their lives and pray that God would be drawing them closer to himself.

We truly cannot thank you enough for committing to pray for us for the first 40 days of our time in Romania. We will be sending out a daily email during those 40 days to tell you who we have met (and therefore who to pray for) and what our other prayer requests may be. We are so encouraged to know that so many are praying for us, and we appreciate that you are apart of our 1,000 prayer warriors team!
