Please Pray for Denton Update

Quick update - we are the public hospital but he hasn't needed ICU care yet. I am praising God that Denton doesn't need ICU yet. I was able to find a nurse to help me get some food, I was able to buy toilet paper, and I've got a bed with clean sheets. And thankfully because of Denton's age and condition they put us in an isolated room rather than having to share a room with three other mothers and their sick children. I can't say I'm comfortable, but I feel God's peace and presence. And I'm being sifted and refined as He stretches me to follow Him. I don't want to be here, but I do want to be obedient to whatever He has called me to. He is providing everything I need when I need it. And I know He'll continue. And I'm overwhelmed with gratitude for the outpouring of love and prayers we've received. I'm sorry I can't respond individually, but know how encouraged I have been by every single note, email, and text. I hope that my next update will tell you we're going home!

With love,
Catalina and the crew
